ALL AGAIN ELECTED.

United Confederate Veterans Make
No Change in Officers.

EX-SLAVES HONORED

Widow of the Late John H. Reagan
Was Greeted With Much Enthusiasm Upon Appearing In the Hall.

New Orleans, April 27.—Resolutions were adopted Thursday by the United Confederate Veterans providing for the suspension of any camp which fails to pay its per capita tax after due notice has been given, providing that any member of a defunct camp may retain his membership by paying his annual dues to the camp nearest his place of residence; that all subordinate camps hold annually in the month of January memorial services in honor of the head of the camp who have died the preceding year; that all camps be urged to use every effort to raise funds for the monument to Confederate women, and that the action of the grand camp of Confederate Veterans in the department of Virginia, in attempting to preserve earthworks in and around Petersburg be endorsed.

The afternoon session was brief, business being pushed through with the utmost dispatch. The committee on resolutions presented a supplemental report, declaring in favor of a recommendation to the several southern states that pensions be paid by each state to slaves who followed their masters to the war.

Some years ago resolution was passed at a reunion declaring in favor of a provision for the presentation of medals to the man who showed the greatest courage in any battle in which the Confederate troops were engaged. The resolution has been neglected heretofore, but Thursday it was resurrected, and it was decided that it should be put into effect at once. It was also provided in the resolution that if the soldier entitled to the medal is dead, and his heirs cannot be located the medal shall be presented to the battle abbey, to be erected in Virginia.

The next business was the election of officers for the ensuing year, and all of the present ones were re-elected by acclamation. General S. D. Lee, the commander in chief; General Cabell, the commander of the Transmississippi department, and General Walker, commander of the department of Northern Virginia, made brief speeches of thanks for the honor bestowed upon them.

Letters regretting inability to be present were received from Mrs. Jefferson Davis, Mrs. T. J. Jackson, Mrs. George E. Pickett, Generals S. B. Buckner, Marcus J. Wright and Basil W. Duke.

Mrs. John H. Reagan, widow of the last surviving member of the cabinet of President Davis, was presented to the convention, and heartily cheered. The convention then adjourned.

MEDAL AND BOUQUET.

General Cabell Recipient of Emblem and Bunch of Roses.

New Orleans, April 27.—Following at the Confederate reunion Thursday the adoption of the report of the committee on credentials the veterans of Arkansas presented a written address to General Cabell and passed over to Gen. Lee the beautiful medal intended for General Cabell. General Lee added to the address of the veterans a few eloquent words of his own, and then pinned the medal upon the breast of Gen. Cabell. The latter, struggling with his emotions, was about to reply, when a beautiful young lady, Miss Alice W. Park of Dallas, Tex., presented to him a huge bunch of roses, which completed his discomfiture. He closed his speech of thanks with the assertion that he would not accept for his share in the civil war "a lump of gold as large as Texas with a diamond in it as large as Arkansas."

BRILLIANT BALL.

"Southern Cross" Quadrille Danced by Sixteen Couples.

New Orleans, April 27.—The grand ball Thursday night in honor of veterans was a brilliant affair, and attended by 5,000 persons.

The weather was too warm for too much dancing on the part of any but the younger generation, and after the ball had been formally opened they were left in full possession of the floor. The grand march was led by General S. D. Lee and Mrs. Braxton Bragg, and after its conclusion a quadrille entitled the "Southern Cross" was danced by sixteen couples. The dances of former years, such as the lancers and the quadrille, were placed at the head of the programme as a special incentive to the old soldiers to venture upon the floor, and many of them accepted the opportunity.

Tenth annual convention of American Cotton Manufacturers' association will meet at Asheville, N. C., May 16 and 17.

CYCLONE WAS AWFUL

Destruction of Bellevue Was Well Nigh Complete.

DAMAGE IS DREADFUL

People Have Lost as a Rule All of Their Belongings and an Urgent Appeal For Assistance at Once Sent Out.

Fort Worth, April 27.—Reports from Bellevue state that but four houses remain as the result of the cyclone and fire that visited that place Thursday afternoon. Thirteen people were killed.

Operator Moore, who was thought to have been either killed or burned to death, being in the ruins of the depot, had a miraculous escape. He managed to extricate himself from the debris before the flames reached him.

After wind had leveled the houses the ruins took fire and the work of destruction was thus completed.

The cyclone covered an area of eight miles and destroyed farm houses and crops.

A carload of provisions was sent from Fort Worth and tents forwarded from Wichita Falls.

The chairman of the relief committee at Bellevue asked the Associated Press to give publicity to the following:

"Six hundred of our people are homeless and practically destitute, thirteen were killed and a number seriously injured. The entire town is a heap of ruins, the destruction being complete. Help of every kind is needed, and this relief committee appeals to the public for aid. The committee requests that all money be sent to W. B. Worsham & Co., bankers, Henrietta, Texas."

Reports from Stoneburg say the cotton gin there was wrecked by the storm. Several residences were damaged. No one was injured.

Hamilton escaped, but surrounding country suffered greatly.

PUGNACIOUS PREACHER.

Pulls Off His Coat and Resents an Insult Offered.

Denison, April 27.—A band of religious cranks appeared upon the streets in a wagon. They call themselves "Anointed of the Lord." They are composed of men and women, and drew enormous crowds. The leader wanted to know if any preachers were present. Rev. Coleman, a Baptist minister, attending the Old Fellows' celebration, stated he was a minister. The leader denounced him, using vile epithets. Rev. Coleman pulled off his coat, and with a Confederate yell, knocked his traducer down. For a moment a general fight ensued. The religious cranks were arrested and fined.

NEITHER PROTESTED.

Waters-Pierce and Southwestern Telephone Companies Pay Taxes.

Austin, April 27.—The Waters-Pierce Oil company paid to the comptroller $9,601 taxes on $480,088 gross receipts of Texas business and Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone company paid $9,863 on $657,586 gross receipts, both for quarter ending March 31, under tax law. No protest was made by either company.

State Health Officer Tabor received a letter from Dr. Clifford Irion, president of the Louisiana state board of health, stating he would be at Austin May 2 to attend the conference of city and county health officers.

HAS NO CONTRACT.

Sprinkling Company Will Depend on Liberality of Merchants.

Fort Worth, April 27.—Street sprinkling in Fort Worth has been resumed by the Fort Worth Sprinkling company without any contract with the city. The sprinkling company absolutely refuses to have anything to do with the city government in the premises, and says it will depend upon the liberality of the business men to compensate it.

IMMENSE HAILSTONES.

Tore Hole in Roof, Broke Joist and Landed in Parlor.

Denison, April 27.—The most remarkable feature of Thursday night's storm was a hailstorm, which is asserted to have struck the roof of Mr. Donnell's residence, broke a joist and dropped on the parlor floor.

TILLMAN'S MEASURE.

It Will Be Favorably Reported by the Committee.

Washington, April 27.—The senate committee on privileges and elections by unanimous vote authorized Senator Foraker to report favorably the Tillman bill to prohibit insurance and other corporations from contributing to campaign funds.

A NEW SCHEME SUGGESTED.

It came to the ears of the Battalion editors this week that a brand new movement is actually on foot at the present time to provide some convenient mode of transportation between here and Bryan. Certain gentlemen in Bryan, having become convinced that there is no immediate danger of an electric interurban line being set in operation, have conceived a scheme, which if not as good, is still way ahead of any thing now in existence.

These gentlemen tried to get a franchise to operate a motor car on one of the railway tracks between here and Bryan. The railroad companies were not willing to enter into such a contract, and the scheme had to be abandoned.

However, they are now figuring on the advisability of purchasing a large automobile omnibus and operating it as a passenger car along the public road from here to Bryan, making about one round trip per hour.

We see no reason why such a move as this would not be a good business stroke, and if a sufficient amount of capital is put into machinery to get good reliable rolling stock, it would be absolutely sure of the patronage of the cadets and others who are now forced to wait for trains. As one man has put it, the chief drawback would be that there would be a big fight each time to see which of the crowd of would-be passengers should be allowed to ride.

Our present passenger accommodations are very unsatisfactory, and we would be more than glad to see this interurban line put into operation.—The Battalion.

SHOULDER TO SHOULDER.

Wearers of the Gray Marched With Sailors Arrayed in Blue.

New Orleans, April 27.—For two days the Confederate reunion was devoted to business. Friday was given over to the glorification of a cause that died long since, but still lives on. Friday was the day for the parade of the old soldiers. Although their ranks are thinned by death rapidly, yet thousands were in line. Marching shoulder to shoulder with the veterans in gray were sailors from the United States warship Columbia in uniforms of blue. The weather was ideal in all respects for the event.

The line of march was from Canal street along St. Charles to Lee circle, three-fourths of a mile away, around the circle and back to Canal street, and upon Camp street, which is but one block from St. Charles street. The greatest distance marched by any of the organizations was a little over two miles. An escort of mounted police came first and then Major General Albert Estopinal, chief marshal of the parade, with a glittering staff in gray and gold. After this clattering group of horsemen came General Stephen D. Lee and members of his staff. The Ladies' Confederate Southern Memorial association and Daughters of the Confederacy in carriages were next. Old soldiers were next in line. The Transmississippi department, under General W. L. Cabell, had the right of the line and were followed by the Tennessee department, under General Clement A. Evans, and the Army of Northern Virginia, under General Irvine Walker.

UP TO MEXICO.

American Ambassador Instructed to Inquire Into Seizure.

Washington, April 27.—All of the information received by the state department relative to the seizures of American fishing vessels by Mexican officers was contained in a telegram submitted to the department Thursday by Senator Mallory of Florida. It stated briefly that it was reported in Pensacola that the smack Sterne had been seized off the coast of Yucatan by Mexican officers on a charge of violation of the fishing laws.

The state department forwarded this dispatch to the American Ambassador at the City of Mexico with instructions to make an investigation into the seizure, and to ask his good offices in the case.

The issue is now up to Mexico, and its merits are not known here.

GREEKS RETALIATED.

They Left Thirteen on the Battlefield and the Turks Three.

Salonica, Turkey, April 27.—A band of sixty Greeks, several of whom were dressed in the uniforms of officers of the Greek army, were attacked by Turkish troops near Kareferia, on the road leading from Salonica to Monastir, Wednesday. The fight lasted until Thursday, when the Greeks retreated, leaving thirteen killed on the field. Three Turks were killed and five wounded.

Grand Temple of Order Elects Its New Officers.

Galveston, April 27.—Grand Temple of Rathbone Sisters meets next year at Austin.

Officers were elected as follows: Grand chief, Mrs. Irene Stell of Cuero; grand senior, Mrs. G. H. Sandefer of Lyra; grand junior, Mrs. H. Everett of Palestine; grand manager, Mrs. Ola Humason of Lufkin; grand mistress of records and correspondence, Mrs. B. P. Converse of San Antonio; grand mistress of finance, Mrs. L. M. Jowers of Coleman; Grand protector, Mrs. L. M. Heald of Ashland; or, Mrs. W. F. Heald of San Angelo; grand outer guard, Miss Henrietta Schmidt of Galveston. Mrs. T. J. Corten of Weatherford was elected grand trustee for a term of three years.

WANTS MORE TROOPS.

Force Is Inadequate, and Has Been Badly Overworked.

Washington, April 27.—General Greeley has insisted upon additional troops for San Francisco. He says: "Not only is the present force inadequate to fully guard the interests of the city, but they are necessarily overworked in the past, and are overtaxed. Distances are simply enormous, and conditions demanding military action can best be subserved by sending as large a force of mounted men as is practicable."

In another telegram General Greeley said: "Estimates from various sources place the destitute between 200,000 and 250,000, which leaves me but one soldier to every 100 destitute persons, and the additional force would give only two to the 100. While inclined myself to place the number somewhat below 200,000, the judgment of others cannot be safely ignored."

DECISIVE MEASURES.

Police Adopt Them to Apprehend Those Causing Disorder.

Farris, April 27.—The police adopted decisive measures to apprehend the element which is fomenting disorder and capture of sources its supplies. A search was made at headquarters of Confederation of Labor and also its fifty branches throughout the city. Simultaneously the police searched the homes of a number of Royalist sympathizers, who are suspected of encouraging disorders in the hope of effecting a coup d'etat. The office of La Croix, a reactionary paper, was also searched. Important papers, it is understood, were found at the home of some Royalists.

Postponed Indefinitely.

Shreveport, April 27.—Mrs. Frederick Schoff of Philadelphia, president of the National Congress of Mothers, who is here attending the Louisiana Federated Women's Clubs, says that owing to the San Francisco calamity the meeting of the National Congress of Mothers, to have been held at Los Angeles May 7 to 11, has been postponed indefinitely.

GENERAL UNLOADING.

New York Stock Market Thrown Into Demoralized State.

New York, April 27.—The stock market was thrown into a condition of demoralization during the noon hour Friday by the sudden outpouring of liquidation support, which seemed to be entirely withdrawn, and a panicky break in Hill stocks caused a feeling of nervousness and indiscriminate unloading regardless of prices. Selling had every appearance of being forced. Liquidation for account of insurance companies was believed to be the element.

Spoiled His Scheme.

Among the creditors of an insolvent
firm was a New Yorker who had a balance of $285 coming to him. This man wanted his money. He was a good talker and persuaded the firm to pay him off in case he could get the other creditors to grant an extension of time.
So he called a meeting of the creditors
and talked to them eloquently about the prospects of the firm getting on its feet again if it only had time. He seemed to have won out when a little old man in the back of the room rose and in a squeaky voice declared that he, for one, wanted his money and did not want to wait for it. "Don't you think it is rather selfish of you to interfere with this plan, in which all of the other creditors have agreed?" asked the first man. "We are willing to wait for the amount of our claims. Every one of us, including myself, believes that this firm should have plenty of time. How much is your claim, anyway?" In the same piping voice the little old man answered: "They owe me $185,000. How much is your claim?"

The Tomb Spider.

The people of Italy believe in the existence of a wonderful creature which for the want of a better name is called the tomb spider. The entomologists know nothing of this queer beast and declare that it only exists in the fancy of the superstitious persons and those whose curiosity or business makes it necessary for them to explore old ruins, tombs, catacombs, etc. According to the popular account, the tomb spider is of a pure white color, has wings
like those of a bat, a dozen horrid crooked legs and a body three or four times the size of that of the largest tropical American tarantula. The accounts of this queer insect and his outlet of the way places of abode are by no means common, and on that account the information concerning him which we will be able to give is very meager.
Any Italian will tell you that such a creature exists, however, and that he is occasionally met with in old mines and caverns as well as in tombs and subterranean ruins. .

Changes in Pronunciation.

It requires no very profound knowledge of English literature to ascertain that the pronunciation of the language has undergone a vast change during the last three centuries. The shrewd conjecture has indeed more than once been hazarded that the works of the Elizabethan dramatist would be unintelligible to a modern audience if the native and original pronunciation were adhered to, and certain, at all events,
it is that in many well known passages of Shakespeare the very rhythm of the line imperatively demands a strange and unaccustomed accentuation of certain words. With the peculiarities of a later period most people are sufficiently acquainted. That gold was good and that china was chancy during the Augustan era is matter of common knowledge. And who can forget Pope's description of Atticus:

Dreading even fools, by flatterers besieged.

And so obliging that he ne'er obliged?

The last mentioned mode, as well as the two others, lingered on well into the last century and was habitual with Lord John Russell, though they are all probably by this time as rare as Roschia for Russia and rarer than Spaw
for Spa.—Chambers' Journal.

How Arnold Studied Logic.

Here is an interesting story told in the life of Archbishop Temple:

Matthew Arnold got leave, at the last moment, to take in "Logic For Respon-sions" instead of "Euclid," which he could never master. The day before the examination he went to Jowett, who was his tutor, and asked how he could learn the subject in time, as he was wholly ignorant of it. Jowett said his only chance was to go to Temple and see if he would try to teach him in one day. Temple consented and, starting about 9 o'clock in the morning, talked continuously, allowing two pauses of half an hour each for meals, till past 2 o'clock next morning. Arnold had been provided with paper, but took no notes. He lay back in his chair with the tips of his fingers together, saying from time to time,
"What wonderful fellows they were!"
Soon after 2 o'clock a. m. Temple sent Arnold away to get some sleep, after which he satisfied the examiners in logic. He answered every question.

Before and After.

Mrs. Mann—Before we were married Charles used to bring me candy when he came to see me. Now I have to buy my candy myself or go without. Mrs.
Grimes—That's just the way with the men. Mrs. Mann—But, then, I don't mind it. I buy better candy than he used to buy, and as it is his money, just the same as in the old days, the new arrangement is more expensive to him
than the old one.

CLEAN SHAVEN FAGS.

A Contention That Every Man Should Show All His Features.

A recent writer, says the Chicago
News, has this to say about beards:
"The ideal man is clean shaved. Confidently he exposes to the world his features undisguised by hisute appendages. Can we conceive the Apollo Belvedere with even a mustache? I doubt it. A merely honest man also,
one would think, should wear no hair
upon his face and for these reasons:
Each of us in great measure, partly from exaggerated ideas of his own perspective, partly from the stress of life, judges his neighbor from his face. His clothes are but a doubtful index of his character, but his features are, we firmly believe, indicative of his nature
and his mode of life.

"There may be villainy written large on his upper lip. A certain mold of chin betrays its owner as a man of considerable homicidal tendencies. Cover the lips with a waterfall mustache,
drape the chin with an Assyrian beard,
and it may well be that this murderous monster is a pleasing enough fellow to view. Such a one does not venture to pass clean shaved through our streets. Let each one of us present in all candor such features as are his.

"To possess a receding chin is no crime. It is merely a sign of weakness. But to conceal it with a huge and bushy beard and thereby to present the appearance of a man endowed with great strength of will is surely a false pretense."

BENEDICT ARNOLD.

The Tragic Ending of the Life of the Talented Traitor.

The last twenty years of the life of Benedict Arnold were probably the most unhappy that ever fell to the lot of man. The British were willing to use him to promote their own plans
and to pay him for his disgraceful services, but everywhere he was held in such scorn and contempt that for years he scarcely ventured to appear in public. Before his treachery he stipulated for a fortune in cash and a commission as major general in the British army.

He got both and soon spent the former in speculation, while the latter did him no good, as no officer in the army would serve under him, and,
although his talents and bravery were unquestioned, he remained to the end of his days a general without command, even at a time when the British government was sorely pressed for officers and men. In 1798, during the French war, when the country was anxiously gathering all its resources,
he applied to the Duke of York for a command, but was refused.

He went home in despair and said to his wife, "They will not let me find a soldier's death." He never rallied after this blow, and soon after his mind appeared to wander. He ordered his Continental uniform to be brought and put it on, including the sword he had worn when in the American service, and so he died a raving maniac
in 1801 at his residence in London.

shoots its seeds ten or fifteen feet? If you want a brand new sensation, bring home some branches of witch hazel
having both flowers and unopened seed pods on them and put them in vases of water. The pods burst at the most unexpected times, waking you in the night and peppering you with their hard, shiny, black seeds. Branches that are to be used for a party must be selected with care to be sure of having perfectly fresh flowers and seed pods that have not opened. If it is possible to do so, cut them the same day they are needed. If they must be cut the day before they are needed, put them in a cold place in water and wrap a damp cloth around the branches in order to prevent the flowers from withering and to keep the seeds from being expelled too soon.

There will be great excitement when the seed pods open with a snap and the seeds come pattering down. It is well to rehearse this performance, for natural objects often refuse to "show off"
when you want them to.—Country Life
In America.

John Brown's Cottonwood.

One day in 1857 John Brown rode up to the Benton place near Effingham, Atchison county, Kan., and dismounted. He carried in his hand a switch which he had cut from a cottonwood tree. This he tossed aside, and later Mrs. Benton stuck it in the ground at the back door of her little house. It took root and grew. It is now a huge tree and is known in the neighborhood
as "the John Brown cottonwood."—

We have sold 2000 acres of farm lands in the last few days, which is evidence of our ability in turning real estate.

We know it is a little unbecoming
to boast, but you know every dog haven't hesitated to give it one little shake.

We hardly understand why the in-

it is a known fact that he does.

We have had several thousand circulars printed, showing the good points about Bryan and Brazos County, and to meet the demand we expect in the near future we must increase our list of property for sale.
If you are in the market for a home or have something to offer, come to see us. We have a demand for sev-

MEXICAN WAR VETERANS.

Mr. Thomas Rowan has handed to The Eagle for publication the following which explains itself:

The few that are still living are raising funds to erect a suitable monument on the capitol grounds at Austin, Texas, to perpetuate the glorious conclusions of the war. Over 58 years have elapsed since we hoisted the American flag on the Halls of the Montazumas, and there is not a monument to tell future generations that that war ever occurred, Mexico claimed the Nueces river as the boundary line between Texas and the Republic of Texas. Texas claimed the Rio Grande as the line; and Mexico sent a large army to invade and subdue Texas, and the first battles of the war with Mexico were fought on Texas soil at Resaca de la Palma and Pala Alto, and, of course, our army was victorious. Then that vast Territory between the Neuces and the Rio Grande belonged to the Republic of Texas; and when Texas was annexed to the United States, as a state, the United States paid Texas twenty million dollars for that vast territory, ten million to pay her war debt and ten million for a public school fund, and is the foundation of the greatest free school system of any state in our union. And by the acquisition of California and many other rich territories, every progressive person in the United States is financially benefitted, and every person that has attended the public free schools of Texas and the school children of today are securing the benefits derived from the war with Mexico, and we earnestly appeal to every progressive citizen that loves his home and country to assist us in raising funds for this grand and patriotic enterprise.

Col. Abe Harris, Pres.
Mrs. Moore Murdock, Sec.

HOUSTON BUSINESS MEN

CAME WITH GAILY DECORATED SPECIAL TRAIN.

ADDRESS BY DOREMUS AND KITTRELL.

Bryan's Churches, Schools and Business Interests the Subject of Visitors' Praise.

The Houston Business Men's excursion train arrived here from Marlin early yesterday morning via the I. & G. N., gaily decorated with flags and banners and carrying about seventy people including the Herb & Lewis band. The visitors were met at the depot by President Saunders of the Business League and others, and marched to the opera house. President Saunders called the meeting to order and called upon Judge J. W. Doremus to deliver the address of welcome. Judge Doremus responded in a very happy way and his remarks were frequently interrupted by applause. Judge Doremus complimented the visitors on their splendid representation of the growing business interests of Houston, and spoke of Bryan's close and natural connection with "the metropolis of Texas." He bid the visitors cordial welcome to Bryan, one of the most beautiful and thriving cities of central Texas, a city of refinement and culture, of magnificent schools and churches, of large trade territory and immense business interests, of progressive and enterprising business men, (failures being unknown) and of strong banks. Judge Doremus pleasantly remarked that Bryan was ready to loan Houston money on good collateral. Judge Doremus also called attention to Bryan's railroad facilities, and last but not least important, to Bryan's beautiful and cultured ladies.

Judge Norman G. Kittrell then responded to calls from the Houstonians and made reply to Judge Doremus in his inimitable way. He said in coming to Bryan, he was getting back to his bornin' ground and felt at home. He said Bryan was a fine typical Texas town and nothing could down Texans, Bryan suffered from floods and boll weevils and also from encroachments by railroads on her trade territory, but she is still doing business at the old stand and growing and prospering. He said Bryan's magnificent school interests alone insure her future, and that schools are better for a town than railroads. He declared this country is filled with people who meet their obligations and that the name of the man who pays 100 cents on the dollar on the first of the month is "sweeter than angels' voices or music in the night." Judge Kittrell also paid tribute to Bryan as "the realm of pretty women," and to the heroes of the Confederacy who are still the sinews of strength in the land.

Judge Kittrell made interesting references to the navigation of the Brazos river, and regarded the efforts in this direction as sure of success. He said as a boy he had seen navigation of the Trinity, and that at old Magnolia, near Oakwoods there were formerly larger cotton sheds than can now be found in either Houston or Galveston. He dwelt upon the fertility of the Brazos Valley from Waco to the river's mouth, declaring it to be the richest country in the world, and said in twenty years these lands would be worth $100 per acre. Judge Kittrell told about the greatness of Houston and her business interests, and incidentally paid a high compliment to Mr. Geo. W. Norrell, whom he declared to be still loyal to Bryan, and like the sea shell singing of the sea wherever found, Norrell sings in his heart always of Bryan.

Following the address the visitors scattered over the city to mingle with the business men and the band supplied music on the streets. Many of the visitors are acquainted with Bryan and her people and they spoke unreservedly of the prosperity of this community.

Following is the personnel of the visitors:

C. A. Beasley, Sterling Myer, W. G. Lockwood, T. A. Cargill, H. W. Cortes, Jno. S. Bonner, J. E. Browne, Jno. Bute, Frank C. Clemens, J. M. Cary, A. S. Cleveland, Richard Cooke, Max Davidson, C. L. Desel, R. B. Easley, Jas. D. Dawson, Thos. S. Flaxman, Henry Cook, W. D. Lawrence, L. G. Brooks, F. A. Heitman, J. H. B. House, M. E. Foster, W. S. Gard, G. W. Norrell, W. W. Chamberlain, F. P. Chandler, Jno. E. Green Jr., Dan Japhet, Gus Japhet, I. Keller, D. M. Garvin, M. D. L. Martin, Geo. P. Macatee, Jno. McClellan, Boone Gross, J. S. Thompson, G. A. Mistrot, M. H. Robbins Jr., E. A. Peden, W. A. Sherman, C. P. Shearn, L. A. Morrow, E. J. Husson, W. B. Taylor, H. N. Tinker, Jas. P. Finegan, M. R. Waddell, W. F. Sullivan, J. A. Riegler, Judge Norman G. Kittrell.

A party of four I. & G. N. officials accompanied the excursionists: G. H. Turner, general freight agent, and Geo. D. Hunter, assistant general passenger agent, of Palestine; Horace Booth, assistant general freight agent, of Houston; C. J. Larrimer, division superintendent, of Mart.

The excursionists visited Navasota and points on the Madisonville branch yesterday, and returned to Houston last night, after being out since Tuesday. By invitation Judge Doremus accompanied them to Navasota.

NO EXCUSE FOR CATARRH

Worst Cases Quickly Cured by Breathing Hyomei—Guaranteed by E. J. Jenkins.

There is really not the slightest excuse for anyone having catarrh now that Hyomei is so widely known and so easily obtained. The worst cases of catarrh are quickly cured simply by breathing the remedy through the pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit.

The complete outfit, consisting of a neat pocket inhaler, a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hyomei, costs only one dollar, while extra bottles can be obtained for 50 cents, making Hyomei the most economical, as well as the most reliable method for curing catarrh.

E. J. Jenkins positively guarantees a cure when Hyomei is used in accordance with directions, or E. J. Jenkins will refund the purchase price.

THE SWEETEST ECHO.

It Answers a Call at a Tomb at Agra, in Hindustan.

One of the finest echoes of which we have record is mentioned by Barthius, in his notes on the Thebais of Statius. This was on the banks of the Naha, between Coblenz and Bingen, where an original sound was repeated seventeen times.

At Milan is an echo which reiterates the report of a pistol from fifty to sixty times. In a cave of the Pantheon it is said that the guide, by flapping his coat, makes a noise equal to the report of a twelve pounder. Pliny speaks of a cave in Dalmatia where a stone tossed in would raise a perfect storm.

The sweetest echo in all the world answers a call at the side of the tomb of Nur-Mahal dud Jehanagir, at Agra. The guide raises the cry, "Great is God, and Mohammed is his prophet—Allah! Allah!" At first three distinct musical notes are heard in the echo, which reverberate round the dome and ascend until they reach the smaller dome, where they reunite and escape from the temple as one tone.

Unique Advertising.

Some of the Japanese tradesmen in the smaller towns of Nippon have a curious way of advertising their business. On their right forearms they tattoo figures—the shoemaker a shoe, the woodcutter an ax, the butcher a cleaver. Underneath these emblems are such inscriptions as, "I do my work modestly and cheaply," or "I am as good at my trade as most of my fellows." When they are hunting work they bare their arms and walk about the streets.

So Long.

With respect to the origin of the familiar parting salute, "So long," there is a suggestion that it is derived from the Norwegian "Saa laenge," a common form of farewell, equivalent in meaning to "au revoir," and pronounced like "so long," with the "g" softened. There was a fair number of Norwegians among the settlers in America, to judge by names, and it is quite likely the phrase was picked up from them. It is in general use among the Dutch in South Africa.—London Globe.

Broad enough in scope to interest every person in the Cotton belt, while it will stand distinctively as a representative of the Cotton growing interest, it will cover the whole field so thoroughly that it will be a necessity to every Cotton merchant and manufacturer the world over. The statistical department will be in charge of eminent statisticians, and no expense will be spared to make this department the most perfect in the world.

Harvie Jordan, Editor-in-Chief, and Richard Cheatham, Business Mgr., have in their work as President and Secretary, respectively of the Southern Cotton Association, won victories in the interest of Cotton producers of more value to the country than any great victories ever won by a conquering army on the battlefield, and their work has added untold wealth to the Cotton States. The Cotton Journal will continue the battle for Southern supremacy and fair play. The public has for many years heard practically only one side of the Cotton story. It will be the mission of The Cotton Journal to tell the other side. ## Woolen Will Wear IN ALL WEATHERS

Argue as they will, one fact remains: Cotton adulterated cloth will neither keep its shape nor wear under any conditions. Pure woolen cloth will. Our Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes are made of pure woolsens, tested by the wool test, which is the beginning of all

Stein-Bloch Clothes

The only reason why cotton is substituted for wool in mercerized fabrics is to cheapen the goods. A house is no stronger than its foundation. So with clothes. Cheap fabrics mean cheap clothes; and no matter how shrewdly they are tailored, they will be untrustworthy. Stein-Bloch employ no mercerized or cotton adulterated fabrics. Their goods are pure caustic-tested wool, and the clothes made from them wear and keep their shape.

The Stein-Bloch Wool Test

The Stein-Bloch Wool Test consists of a boiling solution of water and caustic potash, the chemical action of which dissolves wool but not cotton. The two samples here shown were originally of the same length, the test proved one to be all wool, consuming the part immersed and leaving only the blackened edge. The other proved to be an adulteration containing a large per cent of mercerized cotton.

FOR "SHOOTING UP."

First Arrest Made Was a Member of the National Guard.

San Francisco, April 27.—The first arrest for alleged indiscriminate and reckless shooting by members of the state militia, which, it was asserted, made the streets in certain sections of the city controlled by the National Guard unsafe after the earthquake, was made shortly before midnight on Thursday night, when Ernest Wilder, a military sentry, was taken into custody and disarmed by Captain B. F. Rittenhouse of the United States marine corps, who turned him over to the police. Captain Rittenhouse charged Wilder, who is from Visalia and a private in Company E, Sixth regiment,

SPRECKELS' HOUSE IN SAN FRANCISCO.

National Guard, with leaving his post and "shooting up" the district commanded by Rittenhouse.

Both male and female will be assisted if in need of help. The San Francisco Call has been designated as the official depository in this city, the Herald in Salt Lake City, and every newspaper and hotel in the United States is requested to receive donations to the fund and forward them to the Call.

Sixty carloads of provisions from various portions of the country arrived over the Southern Pacific at Oakland Mole Friday. The supplies were immediately taken in charge by the relief committee for distribution in Oakland, San Francisco, Santa Rosa and San Jose. So great is the quantity of supplies now arriving that notice has been sent to interior cities and towns of the state to hold consignments until trainloads on the way here have been used.

A heavy downpour of rain set in at midnight and continued throughout Friday morning. It made things miserable for those living under canvas in various camps. Unfortunately the number of these people was augmented Thursday by removal into camps of those who previously had been given shelter in churches and assembly halls. A strong wind blew Friday, and the weather was extremely cold, adding to the discomfort of the situation.

PROFESSIONAL PEOPLE.

H. E. Huntington Gives Large Donation For That Class.

Los Angeles, April 27.—H. E. Huntington opened with a gift of $30,000 to a fund to alleviate the ruined fortunes of professional men and women who lost all in the San Francisco disaster. In a statement made public by Mr. Huntington his gift is in part as follows: "During my recent visit to San Francisco I was struck most forcibly by the misfortune that accrued to professional men by reason of the disaster. Sturdy laboring men will find work at once, and through the assistance of relief committees and abundant call for labor they will soon be on their feet again and in almost as good condition as before the earthquake. It seemed to me that lawyers, doctors and other professional men who depend upon libraries for skill and clientele for support were the most heavily hit. I know personally many professional men who lost libraries, home, instruments—everything but the clothes they were wearing. These men are not well equipped to do manual labor and must take practically a new start in professions with little or nothing to begin with."

THREE HEAVY SHOCKS.

Salinas Visited Thrice by Very Heavy Earth Rumbles.

Los Angeles, April 27.—A long distance telephone message to this city from a correspondent of the Associated Press at Salinas, 120 miles south of San Francisco, Friday, states three very heavy earthquake shocks were felt there Thursday night at 8 o'clock and another at 9:50 and the last at 2 o'clock Friday morning. The shocks lasted about four seconds each, but so far as known did no damage.

One Thousand Fed.

Ogden, Utah, April 27.—About 1,000 refugees were fed and sent on east from this point Thursday. It is said that hereafter free transportation will only be furnished to women and children, as an effort is being made to keep men at San Francisco to assist in cleaning up the city.

Formality Suggested.

Washington, April 27.—Secretary Taft telegraphed to Governor Pardee of California the suggestion from the President that in order to avoid any possible legal complication the governor should call upon the president formally for the use of the United States troops in San Francisco.

Dewey Enters Canal.

Port Said, Egypt, April 27.—The dry dock Dewey, on her way to the Philippines, in tow, entered the Suez canal Friday.

No More Demonstrations.

Paris, April 27.—The ministerial council decided to forbid processions and street demonstrations on May 1.

Won by Austrian.

Phalerum, Greece, April 27.—Herr Scheff of Austria, sixteen years old, won the 400 metre swimming race.

Profitable Producer.

Sour Lake, Tex., April 27.—Anderson oil well brings in daily for its owner $300.

SPOONER SPOKE.

Wisconsin Senator Discussed Amendment of Mr. Bailey.

Washington, April 27.—In the senate Thursday Mr. Spooner spoke for three hours on the railroad rate question, and then gave notice that he would continue his remarks Friday. He addressed himself especially to Mr. Bailey's amendment taking from the inferior Federal courts the right to enjoin against the execution of the orders of the interstate commerce commission, contending that such an exercise of power would be the first step toward the destruction of the power of the judiciary and result in innumerable blending of the co-ordinate branches of the government. He also discussed at length the distinction between "jurisdiction" and "judicial" power. The address was technical, and consisted largely of quotations from legal decisions.

SENATOR JOHN C. SPOONER OF WISCONSIN.

Mr. Spooner had proceeded for almost an hour without being interrupted, when an interruption came from Mr. Bailey when the Wisconsin senator had referred to a case in which the attorney general criticised a judicial decision, and had been replied to by the court.

Mr. Bailey suggested that "interesting as this episode had been, it was not as interesting as a more recent episode," referring to the president's criticism of Judge Humphrey in the beef packing case. "Has Judge Humphrey gone back on the bench to respond to the criticism of himself?" asked the Texas senator.

"Has the senator jurisdiction to ask that question?" queried Mr. Spooner. Mr. Bailey, replying, said that he had not, but that he had "judicial power to do so."

Replying to the question, Mr. Spooner said: "I stand with all my heart and soul for the distribution of powers between the three independent co-ordinate branches of the government, and regard it as fundamental that none of these should be invaded by the others. It will be a sorry day for the United States when the courts become terrorized by either congress or the executive. The place to correct the errors of the inferior courts is the great tribunal created for that purpose."

UMPIRE CHOKED.

Montgomery's Manager Was Arrested For Assaulting Buckley.

In the Southern Baseball league game at Birmingham Thursday the locals defeated Montgomery in a contest marred by wrangling, the score being 4 to 3. Manager Durrett of Montgomery was put off the field by order of Umpire Buckley. Durrett seized the umpire and choked him. He was placed under $50 bond on charge of assault.

NEWMAN GROUP.

Pertains to Stock In Various City Street Car Companies.

New Orleans, April 27.—A project is being submitted to stock brokers here outlining allotments which holders of stocks in street railroad companies which make up what is known as the group are to receive in new holdings of the company, which it is proposed to organize for the purpose of taking over properties in Nashville, Little Rock, Birmingham, Knoxville, Memphis and Houston. The schedule is understood to be tentative. Messrs. Isadore Newman & Co. said the project is being submitted for information and necessarily would have to be voted on by stockholders.

INTENDED FOR ANOTHER.

Bullets Mrs. Skinner's Husband Shot Were Fired at Man.

Memphis, April 27.—Mrs. J. W. Skinner, wife of the manager of a local manufacturing concern, was shot and killed by her husband Thursday night while seated on the verandah of a local club house. Skinner, when arrested, claimed that the killing of Mrs. Skinner was accidental; that the bullets which struck the woman were intended for Robert Simpson, an expert golf player, who was seated near Mrs. Skinner, and whom, Skinner alleges, was responsible for domestic differences in the latter's home.

Dynamiting Charged.

Ryan, I. T., April 27.—Four white men were placed under bond of $2,000 each on charge of dynamiting the house of a negro at Comanche.
